1. PARTIES

1.1 Company: Company means the entity awarding the Service Order (hereinafter referred to as Party).

1.2 Contractor means the entity providing the Services (also hereinafter referred to as Party)

1.3 Company and Contractor shall be jointly referred to as Parties.

2. SERVICES/WORK

Services/Work mean the services to be provided or work to be performed by Contractor under this Service Order.

3. ORDER OF PRECEDENCE

This Service Order is comprised of all the documents as specified in Annexure-I and in the event of ambiguity or conflict between or among two or more documents for the same provisions, priority shall be given in the order below:

(a) Amendment to the Service Order (if any);

(b) Service Order Cover Page (Front Page) ;

(c) Section –II Price Schedule;

(d) Section-I General Conditions of Contract;

(e) Scope of Work/Technical Specifications (if separately cited in Annexure-I);

(f) Any other document attached to the Service Order.

4. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

The Service Order constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes all prior negotiations, representations or agreements related to the Service Order. No amendments shall be effective unless issued in writing and agreed by both the Parties.

5. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR

The relationship of Contractor to Company shall be that of an independent contractor. Except to the extent set forth in the Service Order, nothing herein shall be interpreted to create a master-servant or principal-agent relationship between Contractors or any of its subcontractors and Company. The fact that Contractor is an independent contractor does not relieve it from its responsibility to fully, completely, timely and safely perform the work in strict compliance with this the Service Order. Nothing in these General Conditions or in the performance of the Services shall be construed to create a partnership, joint venture or other joint business arrangement between the Parties.

6. SUB-CONTRACTING AND ASSIGNMENT

Contractor shall not sub-contract and /or assign this Service Order or any rights or obligations thereunder without the written consent of Company. Any such consent shall not relieve Contractor from any obligation, duty or responsibility under the Service Order. Company may assign this Service Order to any Co-venture or Company's affiliate without the consent of Contractor

7. WORK SITE

Work Site means any area onshore/offshore specified in the Service Order where Contractor shall be providing the Services.

8. CONTRACTOR EQUIPMENT

These shall mean the equipment, products, materials and supplies to be provided or supplied by and/or at the expense of Contractor or its sub-contractor in connection with the Service Order, including all tools, machinery, vehicles, camp, equipment, materials and supplies to conduct the Services pursuant to the Service Order.

9. FREE ISSUE MATERIALS

9.1 These shall mean equipment, machinery, tools and materials issued by Company to Contractor for the performance of Services under the Service Order, the ownership of which is retained by Company at all times.

9.2 Contractor shall be responsible for checking and inspecting the Free Issue Materials, if any, supplied by Company under the Service Order. Contractor shall satisfy itself of the completeness and suitability of the Free Issue Materials and shall forthwith advise Company within three (3) days of receipt of the Free Issue Materials of any defects, deficiencies, overages, shortages, damages therein and/or error in supporting documentation. After this period, Free Issue Materials shall be deemed received in complete and undamaged condition.

9.3 Contractor's responsibility includes the safe custody, storage, handling, preservation and re-packing of the Free Issue Materials and these responsibilities shall be vested on Contractor immediately upon delivery of such materials by Company to Contractor or Contractor's representative. The Free Issue Materials shall remain complete, intact and in the same condition upon return/delivery at a designated location as agreed by the Parties.

10. MOBILIZATION & COMPLETION OF SERVICE

Mobilization means transport of Contractor Equipment and personnel for the performance of Work to the Work Site. Completion of Services means the completion of Work in accordance with the requirements and delivery schedule of the Service Order, certified by the Company authorized representative on successful completion of Work. Strict compliance with these requirements is of the essence of the Service Order.

11. INSPECTION AND APPROVAL

11.1 Company and/ or its authorised third-party inspection agency reserves the right to inspect the Work/Services rendered by Contractor and Contractor Equipment at Work Site and if rejected due to non-compliance with the requirements/specifications of the Service Order, Contractor Equipment shall be replaced immediately and the defective Work shall be rectified immediately.

11.2 Contractor shall perform the Services with skilled personnel, who shall be, in respect of both number and qualifications, capable of fulfilling the Services according to the delivery schedule of the Service Order. Company shall have right to reject and/or ask for replacement of Contractor's personnel.

12. COMPANY PROVIDED INFORMATION

On receipt of any specifications, drawings or other information including the Scope of Work required for the Services and Supply as provided by Company or provided expressly on its behalf, Contractor shall inspect same for omission, inconsistency or inaccuracy. If Contractor considers there is any omission, inconsistency or inaccuracy in such specifications or drawings, or that any modification should be made, Contractor shall notify Company forthwith in writing

13. PERMITS, LAWS AND REGULATIONS

13.1 Contractor shall in performing the Services observe and be bound by all applicable laws as amended or substituted from time to time and provide documentary proof in this regard if and when required by Company.

13.2 Contractor shall be responsible for obtaining and maintaining at its own cost all licenses, permits, other permits and clearances, certifications and authorizations as applicable and necessary for the performance of its obligations under this Service Order , unless otherwise specified elsewhere in this Service Order.

13.3 Contractor shall defend, hold Company harmless and indemnified against any or all loss, damages, penalties, consequences, etc. arising out of non-compliance with the statutory requirements. If for any reason whatsoever, Company is forced to make any statutory payments or any other payment which is the responsibility of Contractor under this Service Order, to any of the statutory bodies or other bodies or Contractor's personnel, such amounts shall be deducted from the payments due to Contractor. If the payments due are not sufficient to cover these expenses, then Company shall make claims for such amounts on Contractor and Contractor shall pay to Company, without dispute, within fifteen (15) days of receipt of such debit note.

14. INSURANCE

14.1 Contractor shall arrange as a minimum the insurances set out in this Clause 14 and ensure that they are in full force and effect throughout the term of the Service Order. All such insurances shall be placed with insurers of repute and shall for all insurances (including insurances provided by subcontractor's), other than Employers' liability insurances/Workmen's Compensation to the extent of the liabilities assumed by Contractor under the Service Order include Company as additional assured and, shall be endorsed to provide that underwriters waive any rights of recourse, including in particular subrogation rights against Company in relation to this Service Order . Such insurances shall also where possible, provide that Company shall be given not less than 30 days' notice of material change to cover. The provisions of this Clause 14 shall in no way limit the liability of Contractor under the Service Order.

14.2 The insurances required to be effected under Clause 14 shall be as follows (to the extent that they are relevant to the Work):

(a) Employers Liability and/or (where the jurisdiction of where the Services are to be performed or under which the employees deployed requires the same) Workmen's Compensation insurance covering personal injury to or death of the employees of Contractor engaged in the performance of the Work to the minimum value required by any applicable legislation or statutory norms;

(b) Comprehensive Insurance Policy for all the Vehicles, including third party coverage;

(c) Medical insurances for its deployed Personnel (including Medi-claim Policy).

14.3 Contractor shall supply Company with evidence of such insurance on demand. Contractor shall procure that subcontractors are insured to appropriate levels as may be relevant to their work.

15. LIQUIDATED DAMAGES

15.1 If Contractor for any reason other than Force Majeure, or acts or omissions of Company, fails to deliver the Services in accordance with the terms of this Service Order, Contractor shall pay to Company, as ascertained and agreed liquidated damages, and not by way of penalty, for every such delay @ 1% of the Service Order Price for each week or part thereof of such late delivery, up to a maximum of 5% of the Service Order Price.

15.2 Company may, without prejudice to any other method of recovery, deduct the amount of such damages from any monies due or which may become due to Contractor under the particular Service Order. The payment of liquidated damages shall not relieve Contractor from any of its obligations and liabilities under this Service Order.

15.3 Contractor agrees that the liquidated damages stipulated hereinabove are genuine pre-estimate of the loss/damage which Company shall suffer on account of delay/breach on the part of Contractor and the said amount shall be payable without any requirement of proof of the actual loss or damage caused by such delay/breach. Company agrees that payment of liquidated damages by Contractor shall constitute Contractor's sole liability and Company's sole remedy for late delivery, without prejudice to right of Company to terminate as provided in Clause 24.

15.4 Liquidated damages as described herein shall be construed as a genuine pre-estimate of the loss suffered by Company and not as a penalty and shall, other than termination of the Service Order, be Company's sole and exclusive remedy against Contractor arising from the late completion of Services. Liquidated damages may be deducted from any amounts owing by Company to Contractor hereunder or, in the event that no amounts are due to Contractor shall be considered a debt from Contractor to Company payable within thirty (30) days of the date of receipt of Company's notice for the amount due.

16. DEFECT LIABILITY PERIOD

Any Services and material covered under this Service Order is guaranteed by Contractor to be new and of the best quality obtainable, to be free from faulty design, poor workmanship and / or defective materials, to comply with all applicable standards commonly accepted in the industry. In case any defect in the Services due to substandard material, poor workmanship, faulty design, is observed during inspection and testing or during operation before the expiry of the Defect Liability Period (12 months from the date of satisfactory completion of Services), Contractor shall, at no extra cost to Company, repair the Work/Services or any part thereof which in the opinion of Company is defective. Contractor shall also reimburse any costs incurred by Company in effecting such repair. The foregoing shall not diminish or alter Company's rights under law or equity.

17. TAXES AND DUTIES

Service Order Price is all-inclusive unless otherwise specified in this Service Order. Contractor shall indemnify and hold harmless Company from all taxes, duties and any interest and penalties thereon. Company shall provide the required forms/certificates as applicable.

18. PAYMENT TERMS

18.1 Except as otherwise specified in the Service Order, Company shall pay Contractor within thirty (30) days' of receipt of valid and undisputed invoice along with the supporting documents as applicable from Contractor;

18.2 Contractor shall submit original invoice along with the supporting documents to the address and email the scanned copy of the original invoice and supporting documents to the email id as specified in Annexure-I

19. HSE

In provision of the Services, Contractor shall comply with the Health, Safety and Environment requirement as per the applicable law or Company Policy or otherwise as required.

20. VARIATION

Company reserves the right to make instructions to vary the Service Order. No variation in this Service Order shall be accepted unless authorised by a formal Variation Order issued by Company

21. INDEMNITIES

21.1 Contractor shall defend, release, indemnify and hold harmless Company and its affiliates, co-venturers, officers, directors, employees and agents against all actions, proceedings, suits, claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, losses, costs, charges, expenses (including legal fees) arising out of or in the course of the Service Order resulting from (i) personal injury, illness or death of any of the Contractor's employees, consultants, agents (even if caused by the negligence of the Company and its affiliates, co-venturers, officers, directors, employees and agents) (ii) loss or damage to any property owned or hired by the Contractor in performance of its obligation under this Service Order (even if caused by the negligence of the Company and its affiliates, co-venturers, officers, directors, employees and agents); except Company's breaches caused by the willful misconduct and gross negligence of Company.

21.2 Company shall defend, release, indemnify and hold harmless Contractor and its affiliates, co-venturers, officers, directors, employees and agents against all actions, proceedings, suits, claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, losses, costs, charges, expenses (including legal fees) arising out of or in the course of the Service Order resulting from (i) personal injury, illness or death of any of the Company's employees, consultants, agents (even if caused by the negligence of the Contractor and its affiliates, co-venturers, officers, directors, employees and agents) (ii) loss or damage to any property owned or hired by the Company in performance of its obligation under this Service Order (even if caused by the negligence of the Contractor and its affiliates, co-venturers, officers, directors, employees and agents) ; except Contractor's breaches caused by the willful misconduct and gross negligence of Contractor.

21.3 Contractor shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Company and its affiliates, co-venturers, officers, directors, employees and agents from and against any and all liabilities for death, injury, illness to any third party or for damages to loss of any third party's property and against all claims, demands, proceedings and causes due to any omission or default on the part of the Contractor and its and its affiliates, co-venturers, officers, directors, employees and agents.

21.4 Company shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Contractor and its affiliates, co-venturers, officers, directors, employees and agents from and against any and all liabilities for death, injury, illness to any third party or for damages to loss of any third party's property and against all claims, demands, proceedings and causes due to any omission or default on the part of the Company and its and its affiliates, co-venturers, officers, directors, employees and agents.

22. LIMTATION OF LIABILITIES

Company's or Contractor's liabilities under this Service Order, shall not exceed, in the aggregate the total Service Order price. However, anything contained to the contrary in this Service Order, such limitation on or capping of Contractor's liabilities shall not apply to: any liability of Contractor in relation to: liquidated damages; warranty and guarantees; compliance with applicable laws; intellectual property.

23. CONSEQUENTIAL LOSS

Under no circumstance shall Contractor and Company have any liability towards each other whatsoever for loss of use or for any special, indirect, incidental, punitive, exemplary or consequential damages or losses resulting from or arising out of the Service Order and each Party shall hereby releases defends, indemnifies and holds harmless the other Party from such losses.

24. TERMINATION

Company may terminate the Service Order if Contractor fails to perform or deliver as per the Service Order, or if any proceedings in bankruptcy, insolvency or receivership are taken against Contractor (Termination for Cause); or for convenience (Termination for Convenience). Company reserves the right to terminate the Service Order at any time by giving Contractor written notification of termination. On the date of such termination Contractor shall discontinue all work in connection with the provision of the Services except as expressly instructed by Company. Should Company terminate for cause, Contractor shall be entitled for payment as per the Service Order prior the date of termination.

25. SUSPENSION

Company may, at any time, suspend the Service Order or any part thereof by giving written suspension notice to Contractor specifying the part of the Service Order to be suspended and the effective date of suspension. Upon receipt of notice, Contractor shall, unless the notice provides otherwise, cease all work on the suspended part of the Service Order on the effective date of suspension; suspend on the best terms possible all Contractor's subcontracts and sub-orders, to the extent that they relate to the suspended part of the Service Order and perform only such work on the suspended part of the Service Order.

26. FORCE MAJEURE

Where any Force Majeure event which includes but not limited to Acts of God or Force of nature viz. earthquake, fire, lightening, epidemic, flood, major storm, acts of war, civil unrest, etc. renders impossible or hinders or delays the performance of any obligation or the exercise of any right under this Service Order, then the failure or omission of Company or Contractor to perform such obligation shall not be treated as a failure or omission to comply with this Service Order. Upon the occurrence of any Force Majeure event, the Party so affected, shall within five (5) days, give written notice to the other Party clearly mentioning its inability to perform the contractual obligation. If such occurrence results in the suspension of the Service Order for more than thirty (30) days, either Party shall have the right to terminate the Service Order.

27. GOVERNING LAW

This Service Order shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Nigeria.

28. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Contractor shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Company, its successors and assigns and agents from and against any and all claims, losses, damages, liability, suits and demands arising from actual or alleged infringements of any patent or patent right, copy right or similar protection in connection with the Services, except where such claims arise out of work and material furnished in accordance with drawings and specifications provided by Company.

29. CONFIDENTIALITY

Contractor hereto shall subject to any applicable requirements of law, keep confidential all information designated as such or reasonably deemed as confidential information and released by either of them to the other during duration of this Service Order. Contractor shall only share the Confidential Information on need to know basis with prior consent of Company, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

30. COMMUNITY RELATED REQUIREMENT

30.1 Except as otherwise provided in the Service Order, Contractor shall be responsible for dealing with all community related issues. And the price in Service order is inclusive of the same. Contractor shall adhere to the community policy of Company.

30.2 Community related behaviour:

(a) Contractor shall adhere to the following:

i. Meeting with traditional rulers, youth leaders or local community leaders prior to start of the job to maintain good relations and take care of related expenditure like cola money etc.

ii. Deal directly with local communities for employing unskilled labor.

iii. Small disputes arising with local communities in regard to employment or any demands of money etc. should be handled directly.

iv. Maintain cordial relation with all locals and avoid any direct conflict or confrontation.

v. Keep away from local politics

vi. Not indulge in any indecency or misbehaviour with locals.

vii. Drugs and vices like womanizing or drinking in public places to be avoided.

viii. Help Company to complete the job in time rather than create disputes which can delay work.

31. LOCAL GOODS AND SERVICES

In the provision of the Services, Contractor shall:

(a) give preference to the purchase and use of goods manufactured, produced or supplied in Nigeria provided that such good are available on terms equal or better than imported goods with respect to the timing of delivery, quality, quantity required, price and other terms;

(b) employ Nigerian sub-contractors having the required skills or expertise to the maximum extent possible in so far as their services are available on comparable standards with those obtained elsewhere and at competitive prices and on competitive terms, provided that where no such sub-contractors are available, preference shall be given to non-Nigerian sub-contractors who utilize Nigerian goods to the maximum extent possible, subject to the provision in 31(a) above;

(c) co-operate with and assist Nigerian companies as sub-contractors to enable them to develop skills and technology to service the petroleum industry;

(d) ensure to the best of its ability that provisions in terms of 31(a), 31(b) and 31(c) above are contained in the sub-contracts; and ensure that Contractors in Nigeria are given adequate opportunities to compete for the supply of goods and services for the provision of the Service

32. ANTI-BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION

32.1 Contractor duly acknowledges having fully read, understood, and accepted the applicable policies of Company on anti-bribery and corruption (ABC Policy). Contractor acknowledges and confirms it adheres to international best practices on Anti-bribery and Corruption.

32.2 Further, Contractor hereby confirms that Contractor (which expression for the purposes of this clause 32.2 shall include Contractor's affiliates, directors, employees, and/or any person acting on its behalf) has not offered, authorised, solicited, and/or has not accepted a proposal to offer, authorise, solicit any payment, gift, promise, commission, or other advantage (which is of a value greater than US$ 100 or equivalent currency) directly or indirectly, in connection with this Contract or the Service Order or any related agreement(s) or arrangement(s) and the matters resulting therefrom, to or for the use or benefit of any employee, director, agent of Company, or any other person actually or deemed to be or pretending to be representing Company or the family members of such Company's employee, director, agent or such other person.

32.3 Similarly, Contractor hereby confirms and warrants that even in the future it shall not perform or authorise any of the acts as are prohibited and stated in clause 32.2 hereinabove.

32.4 In case Contractor does not comply with, or intentionally or unintentionally violates, any of the provisions of clauses 32.1, 32.2, and 32.3 hereinabove then Contractor would be deemed to be in material breach of this Contract; and Company, at its sole discretion, shall have the right to:

(a) If payments are pending, reduce the total amount finally payable by Company to Contractor under the Contract ("Total Service Order Value") and deduct from such Total Service Order Value by 5% (five percent) of such Total Service Order Value on account of non-compliance or default by Contractor as is stated in this clause 32.4 of these General Conditions;

(b) If delivery is not completed, have an option to terminate the Service Order and shall be entitled to its rights under clause 32.4(a) above.
